PREFACE.

THIS volume contains Chronological Tables of the Extant Public Acts of Parliament relating to India; and the Acts, Regulations and Ordinances passed by British Indian Legislatures.

2. The Table of Acts of Parliament is based on the Chronological Tables prefixed to the "Collection of Statutes relating to India" published in two volumes by the Legislative Department of the Government of India in 1899-1901. Table of Acts of Parliament.

3. Column 3 of this Table shows the short title of each Act (whether given by the Act itself or by the Short Titles Act, 1896); in column 4 are noted repealing and amending Acts; and in column 5 a reference is given to the volume of the aforesaid Collection of Statutes or the issue of the Gazette of India in which the Acts are republished.

4. The Tables of Enactments of British Indian Legislatures are based on the official copies of the Acts, the Ordinances, and the Regulations made under the Government of India Act, 1870, and on Clarke's edition of the Regulations of the Madras, Bombay and Bengal Codes published under the authority of the Court of Directors of the East India Company. Tables of Enactments of British Indian Legislatures.

5. Column 3 of these Tables shows the short title of each enactment, whether given by the enactment itself or by some later enactment.

6. With respect to the entry of repealing enactments in column 4 of these Tables, the following has been the ordinary practice:—

- (1) where an enactment has been totally repealed more than once, the latest repealing enactment has alone been entered;

- (2) where an enactment has been partially repealed and afterwards totally repealed, the total repeal only has been entered: a repeal of the unrepealed portions of an enactment is treated as a total repeal;
- (3) partial repeals covered by later partial repeals have not been entered;
- (4) local repeals covered by later local repeals have not been entered;
- (5) where an enactment has been locally repealed and afterwards repealed by an enactment whose operation is unrestricted, the later repealing enactment has alone been entered.

7. There are also noted in column 4 of these Tables—

- (1) the declarations made by the Laws Local Extent Act, 1874, sections 3 to 7, and by the various local Laws Acts and Regulations, as to enactments being in force in particular parts of British India (so far as such declarations have not been superseded by later legislation), and
- (2) some other legislative declarations affecting the operation of enactments.

The British Baluchistan Laws Regulation, 1 of 1890 (see section 3), the Angul District Regulation, 1 of 1894 (see section 3), and the Burma Laws Act, 5 of 1898 (see the note at the head of the first Schedule), make merely a general declaration as to amending enactments being in force, without mentioning such enactments specifically. In these cases notes have been entered in column 4 of the Tables against the principal enactments only and not against the amending enactments.

8. The local extent in British India of many enactments has been declared or enlarged by means of notifications issued under the Scheduled Districts Act, 1874, and under various other enactments. Such notifications are not entered in column 4 of these Tables, which is confined to declarations made by legislation; but they will be found in the Collections of Local Rules and Orders made under Enactments which are published, or are to be published, by Local Governments. The latest editions of these Collections are as follows :—

Ajmere—"The Ajmere Regulations, also Notifications referring to the Ajmere-Merwara Division, together with Rules, Circulars and Orders, revised and consolidated," 4 Vols., 1897-98.

Assam—"Local Rules and Orders made under Enactments applying to Assam," 1 Vol., 1893, with Supplement, 1896.

Bombay—"Local Rules and Orders made under Enactments applying to Bombay," 2 Vols., 1896-98.

Burma—"The Burma Laws List," 1 Vol., 1897, and "The Burma Rules Manual," 1 Vol., 1897.

Central Provinces—"Local Rules and Orders made under Enactments applying to the Central Provinces," 1 Vol., 1896.

Madras—"Local Rules and Orders made under Enactments applying to the Madras Presidency," 2 Vols., 1897.

North-Western Provinces and Oudh—"Local Rules and Orders made under Enactments applying to the North-Western Provinces and Oudh," 1 Vol., 1894.

A collection of local rules and orders made under Enactments applying to the Punjab is in the Press, and the publication of a similar collection for Bengal will probably soon be taken in hand.

9. Though most of the Acts of the Governor General in Council apply only in British India, some of them apply also proprio vigore to some extent in foreign territory, e.g., the Foreign Jurisdiction and Extradition Act, 1879. All such Acts are entered in these Tables.

On the other hand, there are laws made by the Governor General of India in Council expressly for foreign territory under their administration, e.g., the Hyderabad Assigned Districts and the Baluchistan Agency. Such laws are not included in these Tables; but they may be found, together with notifications applying to foreign territory enactments passed for British India, in Macpherson's "British Enactments in force in Native States."

10. Where an enactment has been wholly repealed or superseded, or is spent, or has expired, or applies only to the Straits Settlements, the entries relating to it in columns 3 and 4 of the Tables are printed in italics.

11. In column 5 of the Tables are noted the volumes of the revised edition of the Indian Statute-book in which the several enactments which are still in force have been or are intended to be published. The latest editions of the several volumes are as follows:—

The General Acts from 1834 to 1898—6 Vols., 1898-1899.
 The Ajmere Code, Ed. 1893.
 The Assam Code Ed. 1897.
 The Baluchistan Code, Ed. 1900.
 The Bengal Code, 2 Vols., Ed. 1899-90.
 The Bombay Code, 3 Vols., Ed. 1894-96.
 The Burma Code, Ed. 1899.
 The Central Provinces Code, Ed. 1891.
 The Coorg Code, Ed. 1893.
 The Madras Code, Ed. 1888.
 The North-Western Provinces and Oudh Code, Ed. 1892.
 The Punjab Code, Ed. 1888.

New editions of the Bengal Code and the Madras Code are under preparation.

12. Some enactments, though still in force, have not been published in the revised edition of the Indian Statute-book, either because they are of a purely personal character or because their operation has been restricted by subsequent enactments to very limited areas. Against each of these enactments the words "Not republished" are entered in column 5 of these Tables.

13. Several enactments have been separately reprinted, by the Legislative Departments of the Government of India and Local Governments, respectively, as modified by subsequent legislation, and such of these reprints as are still in stock are mentioned in column 5 of these Tables. Where not otherwise stated, the reprints were published by the Legislative Department of the Government of India.

14. Table 1 has been brought down to the end of the year 1900, and the other Tables to the end of June, 1901.

15. Communications respecting this work may be addressed to the Legislative Department of the Government of India.

F. G. WIGLEY.
